Domini Tarman

Experience

Domini Tarman is a Senior Program Leader for Decker Communications, Inc. Domini is passionate about assisting others in becoming more effective, impressive and confident in their professional communications.

Domini brings over 20 years experience in sales and sales management to Decker Communications. She has a successful track record in sales for Continental Airlines, ProBusiness and EMC Corporation and managed sales teams at Dun & Bradstreet and American Express. Spending most of her career at American Express in the corporate card and corporate travel divisions, Domini became involved in corporate training and, consequently, discovered her passion. Her extensive experience enables her to incorporate relevant, light-hearted and entertaining career stories to the Decker programs.

Some of her clients included many major banks and law firms as well as companies such as Chevron, Google, Dell Computers, Cisco, 3Com and J.C. Penney's. A communications liaison team Domini initiated and managed won American Express' "Chairman's Award for Quality," so she understands the importance of effective communication techniques both internally and with clients.

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Public Relations, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA.
