

Experience

As the Director of Business Development, Terry uncovers communication needs and challenges in various companies and business categories, and offers Decker solutions that can meet those needs. He feels strongly that Decker is the preeminent communications training and consulting company in the business, and our clients share that feeling through the relevant, usable results they experience.

Terry has been in sales and sales management for practically all of his 35 years in business. He learned early on the importance of solid communication in selling – and all aspects of business – and has a great deal of enthusiasm for “spreading the Decker word”. He is one of seven children, and is proud to be a husband, father and very active in the Big Brother Big Sister organization.
